

CONTENT PERFORMANCE REPORT

Reporting Period: Mar 10 – Mar 16

Overview

This report evaluates the performance of content activities across Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, and TikTok over the last seven days, focusing on reach, engagement, and audience growth.

Facebook Performance

- Total Views: 51,516
- Growth: +23% compared to previous 7 days
- Previous Week Views: ~41,000

Recent Content Performance:

- Post: "STOP WRITING FOR FREE. START EARNING FROM YOUR BOOKS..."
 - Views: 7
 - Messaging Conversations: 2
 - Engagement Change: -50% from previous period

Facebook maintained strong overall visibility with consistent weekly growth. However, recent content engagement dropped, indicating the need for stronger hooks and improved content positioning.

Instagram Performance

- Total Views: 155
- Accounts Reached: 40 (+2.6%)

Audience Breakdown:

- Followers: 53.4%
- Non-followers: 46.6%

Content Performance by Type:

- Reels: 71.6% (Top performing format)
- Posts: 17.6%

Instagram performance remains modest, with Reels driving the majority of visibility. There is an opportunity to scale reach by increasing short-form video content.

LinkedIn Performance

- Search Appearances (Last 7 days): 8 (+52.9%)
- Page Views (Last 30 days): 2 (+83.3%)
- Unique Visitors: 2 (-71.4%)
- Total Followers: 23

- New Followers (Last 30 days): +100% growth

LinkedIn shows gradual improvement in discoverability and follower growth, supporting professional visibility despite low traffic volume.

TikTok Performance

- Video Views: 912 (-48.85%)
- Reached Audience: 593 (-64.72%)
- Profile Views: 5 (No change)

TikTok experienced a noticeable decline in reach and video performance compared to the previous period. This suggests inconsistency in content performance or reduced algorithm push.

Key Insights

- Facebook remains the strongest platform for reach and visibility.
- Instagram Reels are the most effective format for audience growth.
- LinkedIn is gradually improving in professional discoverability.
- TikTok performance dropped significantly and requires content optimization.

Recommendations

1. Increase focus on short-form video content (Reels & TikTok).
2. Improve content hooks and messaging to boost engagement.
3. Maintain consistency in posting across all platforms.
4. Leverage high-performing formats (photos on Facebook, reels on Instagram).

Summary

Content performance over the past week shows strong visibility on Facebook, moderate growth on Instagram and LinkedIn, and a decline in TikTok reach.

With improved content strategy and consistency, there is strong potential to increase engagement and scale organic visibility across all platforms.
